

Join The Freedom Circle!

We climb to combat slavery, exploitation and trafficking of women and children globally. And we are passionately dedicated to seeing these wrongs corrected, and lives restored to wholeness. But this is a big mountain, a steep path ahead. We can't climb it alone — will you join us?

Until now, the way to get involved was to climb or support a climber. And we are so grateful for the thousands who have joined us in these ways, raising over one million dollars to fund OM projects around the world that address these very issues. Glory to God!

To expand the impact of The Freedom Climb, to help more women and children, we are looking for the first 100 Founding Members of The Freedom Circle, a new level of influence in the global climb to freedom. Will you step up? You will make a difference, and you'll draw others along with you. Turn over to see how the program works.
