George S. Majic Spiritus Award

The George S. Majic Spiritus Award is presented annually by the City of Fernie in memory of Mr. George Majic to a person or persons who for many years have demonstrated a commitment to the community through their love of Fernie.

The award will be presented to an individual(s) who exemplify the spirit of giving without any desire for recognition or reward. These individual(s) are Fernie's unsung heroes, those who have demonstrated outstanding characteristics of community commitment and through their contributions they have enhanced and enriched our community as a whole.

The award was conceived by Mr. Majic's friends and family in Sault Ste. Marie as a way of honouring his life service. The name comes from the "Spiritus Award" trophy given to Mr. Majic for the unselfish and energetic contributions he made over the years to his high school in Sault Ste. Marie.
