

CLIMATE RESILIENCE PROGRAM, WINTER 2022 LIST OF PROJECTS APPROVED FOR FUNDING

This program helps communities become more climate resilient.

Community	Organization	Project Name	Description	Amount
Basin-wide	Community Energy Association	Kootenay Clean Energy Transition	Launch a pilot to build workforce capacity for a clean-energy transition through training opportunities.	$213,500
East and West Kootenay	Living Lakes Canada Society	Water Supply for Community Adaptation	Launch a water-monitoring program in three pilot watersheds to enable local governments and First Nations to understand climate change impacts.	$257,300
Kimberley	City of Kimberley	Kimberley Curbside Organics Collection	Launch a composting collection service.	$272,900
Nelson	City of Nelson	City of Nelson Pre-treated Organics Program	Launch the pilot of a pre-treated organics diversion program using on-site food waste recyclers.	$198,750
Nelson	Kootenay Carshare Cooperative	Low Speed Electric Vehicles Pilot	Launch a pilot to put two low-speed electric vehicles on the streets for community use.	$65,100
Rossland	City of Rossland	Rossland Home Energy Leadership Program	Launch a pilot that aims to remove barriers to undertaking home retrofits by providing a “concierge service” to homeowners.	$187,485
West Kootenay	Regional District of Central Kootenay	Bear Safe Curbside Organics	Launch a bear-safe rural organics collection service.	$454,800
West Kootenay	Regional District of Central Kootenay	Curbside Organics Program: Residential and Business Education	Launch an education program for a new organics collection service.	$81,655
TOTAL				$1,731,490